NYS Department of State
Corporations and Other Entities: All Filings
Overview

General Description:

The New York State Department of State, one of the oldest and most diverse agencies in state government, was established in 1778, and is known as the Keeper of Records.
The Department's Division of Corporations, State Records and Uniform Commercial Code is the filing office for documents relating to domestic and foreign business and not-for-profit corporations, limited liability companies, limited partnerships, registered limited liability partnerships and other entities that are formed or authorized to conduct business or activities under the laws of New York State.

This dataset contains information related to Domestic & Foreign Entity Filings maintained in a centralized electronic database that is used to index corporation and business entity records filed in the Department of State's Division of Corporations, State Records and Uniform Commercial Code.

Data Collection Methodology:

Domestic Business corporations, not-for-profit corporations, limited liability companies and limited partnerships must file a formation document with the Department's Division of Corporations, State Records and Uniform Commercial Code. Out-of-state or "foreign" business corporations, not-for-profit corporations, limited liability companies and limited partnerships which choose to do business or conduct activities in New York State must file with the Department of State an Application for Authority. If the foreign entity's name is not distinguishable from the names of all other entities on file with the Division or acceptable under the applicable law, the entity must use a "fictitious" name.

This dataset also includes registrations of Registered Limited Liability Partnerships and New York Registered Foreign Limited Liability Partnerships. It also includes corporate or other business entity "Assumed Names" filed pursuant to General Business Law §130.
This dataset does not include names of corporations or other entities, which are formed or authorized by other filing offices, such as: Banking Corporations, Insurance Corporations, Education Corporations, and most Religious Corporations. Additionally, this data set does not include the names of general partnerships and sole proprietorships.

Statistical and Analytic Issues:

Data is extracted once a week from a centralized electronic database that is used to index corporation and business entity records filed in the Department of State's Division of Corporations, State Records and Uniform Commercial Code. Active, inactive, and suspended entity name data is extracted and made available.

The term “active” indicates, that according to the records of the Department’s Division of Corporations, a domestic corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership exists and that the entity has not dissolved. In the case of a Registered Limited Liability Partnership the term “active” means the entity is currently registered as a registered as a registered limited liability partnership and such registration has not been withdrawn or revoked. In the case of a foreign limited partnership or foreign limited liability company the term “active” means the entity has filed an application for authority and is authorized to do business in New York State and such authority to do business has not been surrendered, terminated, or annulled. In the case or a New York Registered Foreign Limited Liability Partnership, the term “active” means the entity has filed a notice to do business as a New York Registered Foreign Limited Liability Company and such notice has not been withdrawn or revoked or the authority of such entity suspended.

The term “inactive” indicates, that according to the records of the Department’s Division of Corporations, State Records, and Uniform Commercial Code, a domestic corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership no longer exists. In the case of a Registered Limited Liability Partnership the term “inactive” means the entity is no longer registered as a registered as a registered limited liability partnership. In the case of a foreign corporation, limited liability company, limited partnership the term “inactive” means the entity has is no longer authorized to do business or conduct activities in New York State. In the case or a New York Registered Foreign Limited Liability Partnership, the term “inactive” means the entity has withdrawn its notice to do business as a New York Registered Foreign Limited Liability Company or such notice has been revoked.

Existing domestic and foreign entities that have had their authority to conduct business or activities suspended will have a “Suspended” entity status.
